

Purpose

The Purpose and Aims of the Trust (as per the Trust Deed) are:

- a) to work with young people and their families using a holistic approach (i.e physical, mental, social, emotional and spiritual) and provide an avenue for practical Christian service such as the provision of monetary, practical, or spiritual assistance to the community, and in particular to at-risk youth and families.
- b) to provide such assistance in such a manner as to carry with it a good Christian testimony, so that those served in any way will experience the worth and concern of Christian love.
- c) to provide such assistance primarily in Papatoetoe and surrounding communities.
